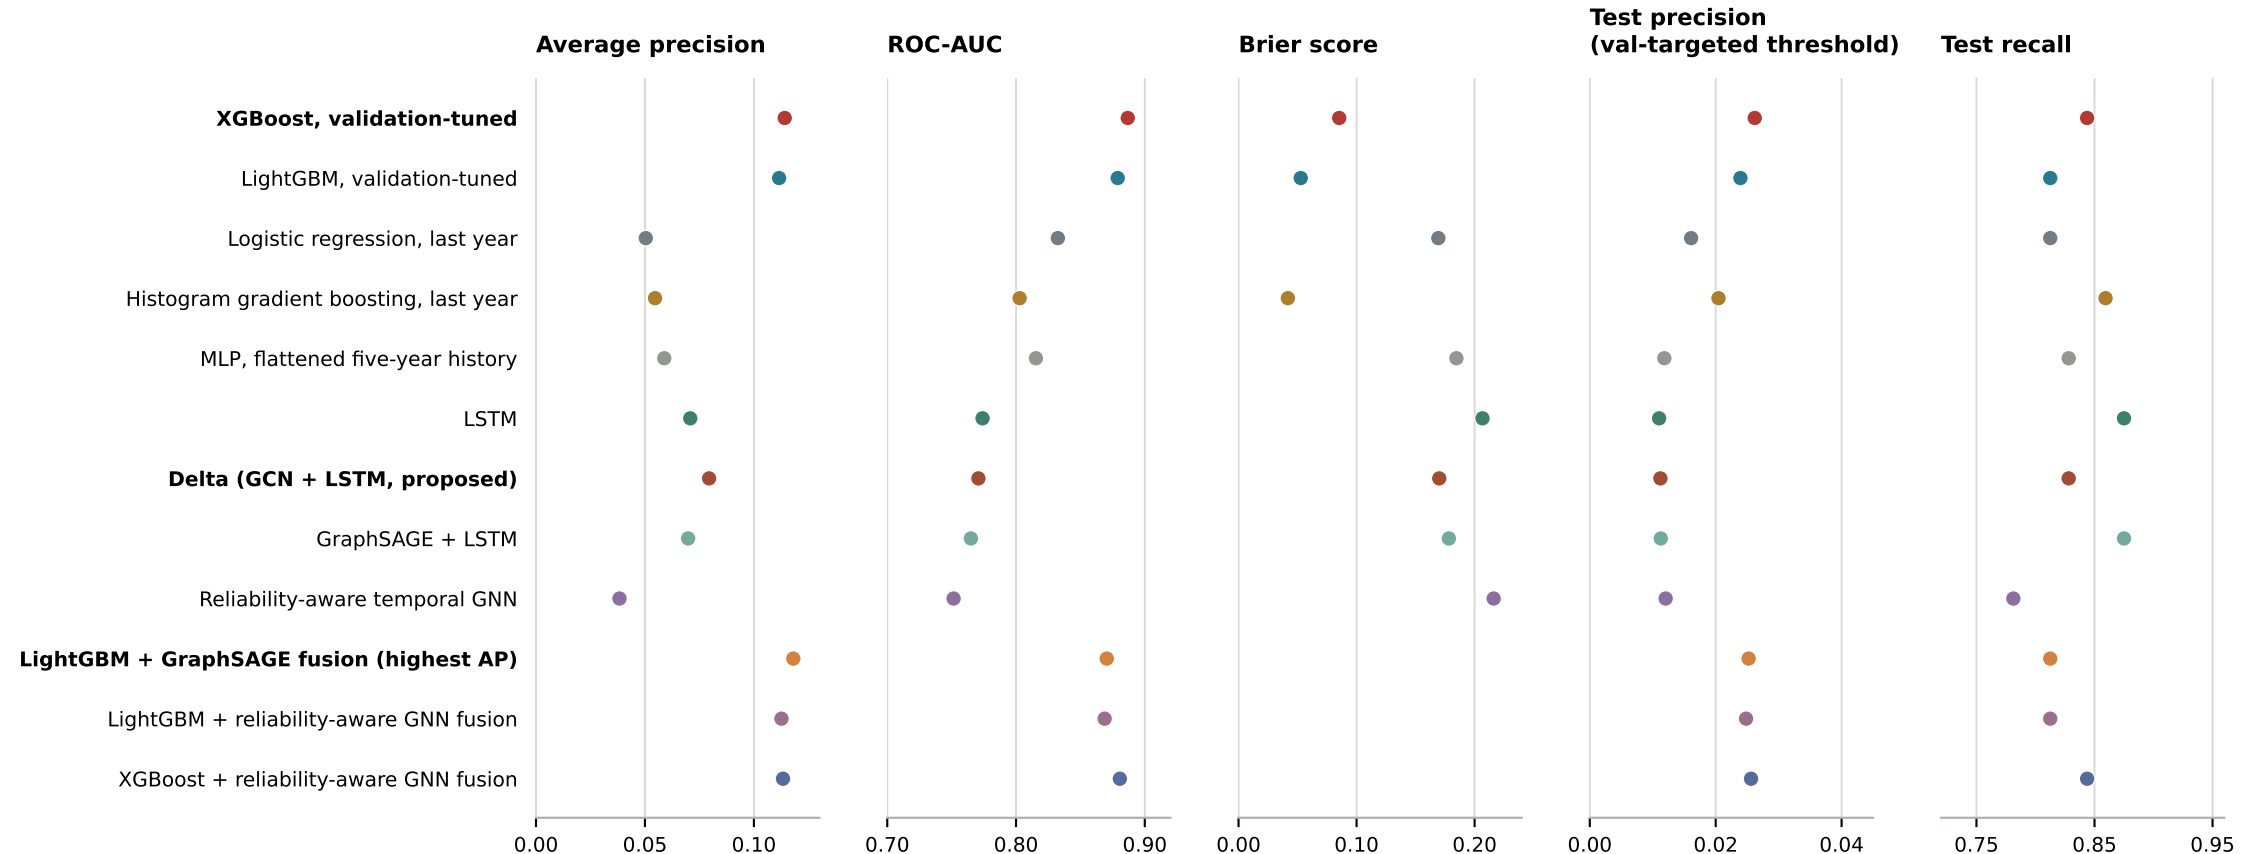
Held-out performance across the complete results table

One dot per model and metric. Higher is better except for Brier; fused scores are not calibrated probabilities.



Bold rows: strongest individual baseline, highest AP point estimate, and proposed model. Brier is not defined for score fusions.